

In the Claims

Please amend claim 18 (to be renumbered as claim 16) as follows.

18. (Previously Presented) The method of claim 16, wherein selective branches of the bitmap skeleton may have a different width than other branches of the bitmap skeleton, the method further comprising:

adding attributes to line elements of the XML file corresponding the selective branches indicative of a width of the selective branches.